NOTORIOUS RACKETEER AND THREE PALS CHARGED WITH ACID-BLINDING OF WRITER

BULLETIN

New York (AP)—The FBI today held racketeer Johnny Dio and three other hoodlums as plotters of the acid blinding of Victor Riesel, labor columnist.

Their motive was to intimidate Riesel from testifying on labor racketeering before a federal grand jury, said U. S. Atty. Paul W. Williams.

Williams said a "punk"—Abraham Telvi—was hired for $500 to hurl the acid and was slain after demanding $50,000 for the job.

Riesel was blinded April 5 when acid was tossed in his face outside a Broadway restaurant. Telvi was found shot to death July 28 in an East Side street.

New York (AP)—FBI agents have seized notorious racketeer Johnny Dio and three other men as the underworld masterminds behind the acid blinding of labor columnist Victor Riesel.

The four were charged with conspiracy in allegedly setting up a sneak attack on Riesel shortly after he strolled out of a Broadway restaurant in the lark early morning hours April 5.

The FBI said a young hoodlum, Abraham Telvi, was hired for $1,000 to fling the acid. Telvi was later found shot to death.

After the arrests yesterday, U. S. Atty. Paul W. Williams said: "Johnny Dio, among others, was the man who directed, instigated and arranged the payoff of Telvi in the acid attack on Victor Riesel."

This in direct relation to Riesel's planned testimony about labor racketeering before the federal grand jury.

Riesel, 41, long a syndicated newspaper crusader against criminal elements in labor unions, has also said the acid attack was planned to scare him out of testifying.

The dapper, 42-year-old Dio, whose actual name is John Dioguardi, was nabbed at his home on Point Lookout, Long Island, N. Y.

Picked up elsewhere were Thomas Dioguardi, 40, his brother and an executive in a cotton goods firm; Domenico Bando, 47, a Brooklyn baker; and Charles Russo, 4, a garment worker. All have long criminal records.

A fifth man, Charles Carino, 43, also was charged yesterday with conspiracy. He was arrested Aug. 13 and held in $100,000 bond as a material witness.

Two other alleged conspirators in the attack were arrested Aug. 13. (Turn to Page Ten)

Strange Case Of Baby Killer Being Unfolded

New Haven, Conn. (AP)—She laughed a lot. She talked a great deal. She ate "constantly," and displayed a child's passion for ice cream and soda pop.

But beneath the pretense of chatty cheerfulness, there were telltale signs of a woman acutely embarrassed by her inordinate size, a lonely woman who seemed to have no life of her own and tried to enjoy vicariously the lives of her temporary employers.

This was the picture slowly emerging today of Virginia Jaspers, the six-foot, 220-pound baby nurse, who told police she shook three infants to death and injured two others in fits of "uncontrollable" temper.

While the big, blonde woman, herself still baby-faced at 33, remained in County Jail in lieu of $50,000 bond, authorities continued to investigate the strange case. There was much to investigate.

Coroner James J. Corrigan said he would study the death certificates of every child under one year who died in the New Haven area since 1953. Miss Jaspers has been known to care for newly born babies in private homes at least since 1948—possibly farther back than that.

But parents whose children were once cared for by Miss Jaspers, said they had no reason to suspect her ability or motives at the time.

Cyclist Burned by Acid That Spills From Truck

St. Louis (AP)—James Badger, 13, sprayed by sulphuric acid which had leaked from a truck, was burned critically as he rode a bicycle in suburban Lemay. A passing car splashed the acid on him. He lost control of the bicycle and fell to the street. His shirt and trousers fell away. A quick thinking witness sprayed him with a hose he was using to water his lawn. Badger was burned on his chest, arms, face and legs.

Man Who Pedals 2,811 Miles From Frisco Without a Saddle Sore Finds Woe in Warren

A dauntless chap who had pedaled 2,811 miles before major adversity struck stopped at Times Square Service Station yesterday afternoon following a bad spill on railroad tracks west of Warren. The man, Robert Schnekenburger, churned out of San Francisco 23 days ago.—Photo by Saylor.

A spirited man from Livingston, N. J. who wanted to peddle his bicycle across the country just because he felt so good after he rode from Chicago to New York last summer, churned his way into Warren about 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon, some 2,811 miles and 23 days out of San Francisco.

Tanned, slim Robert Schnekenburger, a youthful 37, had been breezing along until he arrived in Pennsylvania two days ago. Since then he has been held up by rain for two days and just took the worst spill of his career as he pedaled over the railroad tracks west of Warren.

Wearing special German-built bicycle racing shoes with a cleat on the center of the sole to hold his foot on the pedal, Schnekenburger hit the wet tracks and was unable to free his feet which were strapped to the pedals (for lift as well as push on hills).

The vehicle slithered out from under him and he bounced along on his back and head while the pavement chewed gobs of flesh from his knuckles as they tightened on the hand brakes.

Coming into town Bob stopped at Times Square Service Station to check over his $150 Durkopp racing model bicycle. The German vehicle, high seated and low handlebarred, is equipped with an Italian set of five gears and two sprockets which enables the rider to use any of ten forward speeds.

He said that the highest elevation he had to pedal up was approximately 8,300-foot mountain range which rose steadily for nine miles between Laramie and Cheyenne, Wyoming. (However, the obvious happened. On the downstroke the next day as he pedaled into Ogallala, Nebraska, he made his (Turn to Page Nine)

Storm Damages Give Highway Crews Additional Worries

Highways crews were out once again today completing the third round of repairs to washed out roads, bridges and gutters throughout the county.

The third torrential downpour of Tuesday morning undid much of what had already been repaired twice before when flash floods swept through the area July 26th and August 6th.

Chester Walker, Warren County Highway Superintendent, estimated damages after the latest downpour at between $10,000 and $12,000 dollars.

Lovers Lane Road, twice gouged out above Cinderella Lake and twice repaired, was gouged out a third time. Cinderella Lake area was also swamped again.

Elsewhere in the county, Matthews Run Road out of Youngsville was reported to be badly hit and numerous instances of damage and washouts were recorded.

Jackson Run washed out the repairs to the bridge just below Logan's Farm on Route 69. Previous floods had chewed away half the approach and undermined the highway.

Reports of additional berm damage sifted down from the reaches of Park Street Extension up toward Scandia.

Colorful Blueblood Ex-Congressman Passes Away at 88

Cramerton, N. C. (AP)—George Holden Tinkham, a colorful Boston blueblood who mixed travels to faraway places with 28 years in the U. S. House of Representatives, is dead at 86.

Tinkham, whose chest-length beard, his jaunts to places not listed in the tourist guides and his violent opposition to prohibition made him a figure in Congress, died yesterday in his sleep at the home of a sister here. He had not been ill.

A Mayflower descendant, Tinkham, a Republican, served the 10th Massachusetts Congressional District from 1915 to 1943 when he retired at 72.

One of his trips abroad found him in Europe in 1917 when the United States declared war on Germany and Austria. He fired the first American salvo at the Austrians in northern Italy.

Tinkham fought as hard for strict enforcement of the constitutional amendment granting Negro suffrage and rights as he did against prohibition, which he considered a restriction on personal liberty.

He said that in the coming campaign he expected to discuss "the great issues of our time—war and peace and a better, safer, new America."

Lke Declares U. S. Support Western Plan

Washington, (AP)—President Eisenhower today declared firm U. S. support of the Western plan for settlement of the Suez Canal crisis and urged its backing by every country which believes in "international justice and conciliation."

The President expressed pleasure at Egyptian President Nasser's decision to meet with a five-nation committee and to hear the proposal for international control of the Suez waterway.

Eisenhower's statement, issued after a long conference between the President and Secretary of State Dulles, was read to newsmen by Dulles.

Before he began reading, White House press secretary James C. Hagerty said the President had asked him to express publicly his appreciation to Dulles for "the fine and wonderful job" Dulles did at the 22-nation London conference.

The presidential statement asserted Eisenhower's belief that it was of "great significance" that 18 of the 22 countries which attended the London conference had agreed upon the conditions contained in the Western plan. The countries represent 95 per cent of shipping traffic through the Suez, he said.

Charges of Spying Draw Denial From British Officials

Cairo, Egypt (AP)—Egypt put another British subject behind bars today. Relations between the two countries became further strained in the wake of Egyptian charges that two British Embassy secretaries were involved in a spy ring.

The British Embassy said James Zarb, a British resident of Egypt, was placed under arrest. The embassy said it did not know if his case was connected with an espionage investigation the Egyptians say is implicating a growing number of foreigners.

An embassy spokesman said Zarb might be involved only in passport difficulties. The Egyptians are already holding James Swinburn, business manager for the British-owned Arab News Agency, and Charles Pittuck, an official of the Maroni Radio-Telegraph Co., as spy suspects.

Four Egyptians have been officially named as their accomplices, and Cairo newspapers reported today that four more Egyptians—one an Egyptian naval officer—had been seized as a result of an alleged confession by Swinburn.

The Egyptians have given the two embassy secretaries, J. B. Flux and J. G. Gove, 72 hours to leave the country.

The British have denied Egyptian charges that the two relayed orders to an alleged spy ring, but ordered Gove and Flux home under protest.

Ruling Is Made on Bell Co. Rate Hike Hearing

Pittsburgh (AP)—Bell Telephone Co. of Pennsylvania, seeking a 36-million dollar annual rate increase, can use replacement and labor cost figures of the last five years as a basis for a fair return on its investment.

That ruling was handed down yesterday by the Public Utility Commission on resumption of hearings on the proposed rate hikes. The PUC said the company did not have to use the lower figures of cost over a 10 year span.

The PUC, which conducted 21 days of hearings in Philadelphia and Harrisburg, moved the hearings to Pittsburgh so that the city's legal staff could cross-examine Bell witnesses.

MISSISSIPPI RESULTS

Jackson, Miss. (AP)—Rep. William Colmer will return for a 13th term in Congress and Rep. John Bell Williams will have a fifth term on the basis of incomplete returns from Mississippi's Democratic primary. Chancellor Thomas Ott of the 10th Chancery Court, who was appointed to a vacancy, appeared to have won the rest of the term in the other major office at stake in yesterday's election, one of the quietest in years.

Flurry of Excitement Created In Pine Street by Blaze at the Plant of Penn Furnace & Iron

A fire in a steaming tank at Penn Furnace plant caused quite a flurry of excitement on Pine Street at 11:30 this morning.

All equipment from Central Fire Station raced to the plant just after the alarm and sent out a call for the other stations to stand by.

The flames badly charred the interior of the boiler room. Roy Blodgett, Penn Furnace secretary-treasurer, said the walls would have to be replaced.

No estimate of the damage was made by this afternoon as plant workmen worked on cleaning the foamite from the boiler section which is approximately 12 by 20 feet.

The blaze was discovered when workmen noticed the woodwork burning around the boiler. Plant employees fought the blaze with hand extinguishers until firemen arrived.

The boiler room is in the main Penn Furnace building about midway along the west wall.

Starbuck volunteers stood by at the West Side Station and Youngville stayed at Central Station till 12:55 P. M.

New Budget Leaves But Little Hope for Tax Cuts During 1957

Washington (AP)—A new federal budget estimate, boosting the anticipated surplus to a modest 700 million dollars, today left little ground for hope of tax cuts in 1957.

One administration source said the black-ink margin now foreseeable for fiscal 1957 "is still too narrow to justify any reduction."

The midyear budget review, issued last night by Secretary of the Treasury Humphrey and Budget Director Percival F. Brundage, showed estimated revenues soaring to $69,800,000,000, up $4,300,000,000 from the government income forecast by President Eisenhower in his January budget message to Congress.

But it also showed federal spending amounting to a peacetime record of $69,100,000,000 in the year which started July 1.

That is four billion beyond Eisenhower's spending estimate and absorbs most of the revenue gains arising from unparalleled national income and boom-level corporate profits.

The result is that the anticipated surplus, figured in January to be a little more than 400 million, now is reckoned at 700 million.

But that figure is much less than the fiscal 1956 surplus of $1,700,000,000 for 1956. But business conditions turned out to be much better than they anticipated then.

Most economists foresee a substantial increase in personal incomes in the months ahead which (Turn to Page Ten)

Commission Head Says Truck Tolls Could Be Cut

Harrisburg (AP)—The head of the Pennsylvania Turnpike Commission today held to the belief that a truck toll reduction could be made on the superhighway within the next month.

Chairman G. Franklin McSorley pointed to what he described as a need for "increasing our truck traffic" and looked to the toll reduction "somewhere within 30 days" as the answer.

However, the commission head declined to elaborate on the exact rate revisions in his comments following a meeting yesterday with representatives of four large trucking firms which travel the toll road.

Harrisburg (AP)—Sen. Joseph M. Barr, Democratic state chairman, said he expects the State CIO-AFL to endorse Joseph S. Clark Jr., the party's candidate for the U. S. Senate, at a meeting today.

Barr made the statement last night on a television panel of Capitol Correspondents.

The CIO-AFL Committee on Political Education meets here today.

On the same television program, Barr said the state organization has set a goal of 10,000 tickets sales for its $50-a-plate fund raising dinner here Sept. 13.

Kidnaper To Enter Plea Of Temporary Insanity

Mineola, N. Y. (AP)—A lawyer for Angelo John Lamacra, the 31-year-old mechanic charged with kidnapping little Peter Weinberger, says his client will plead temporary insanity "caused by his desperation over debts."

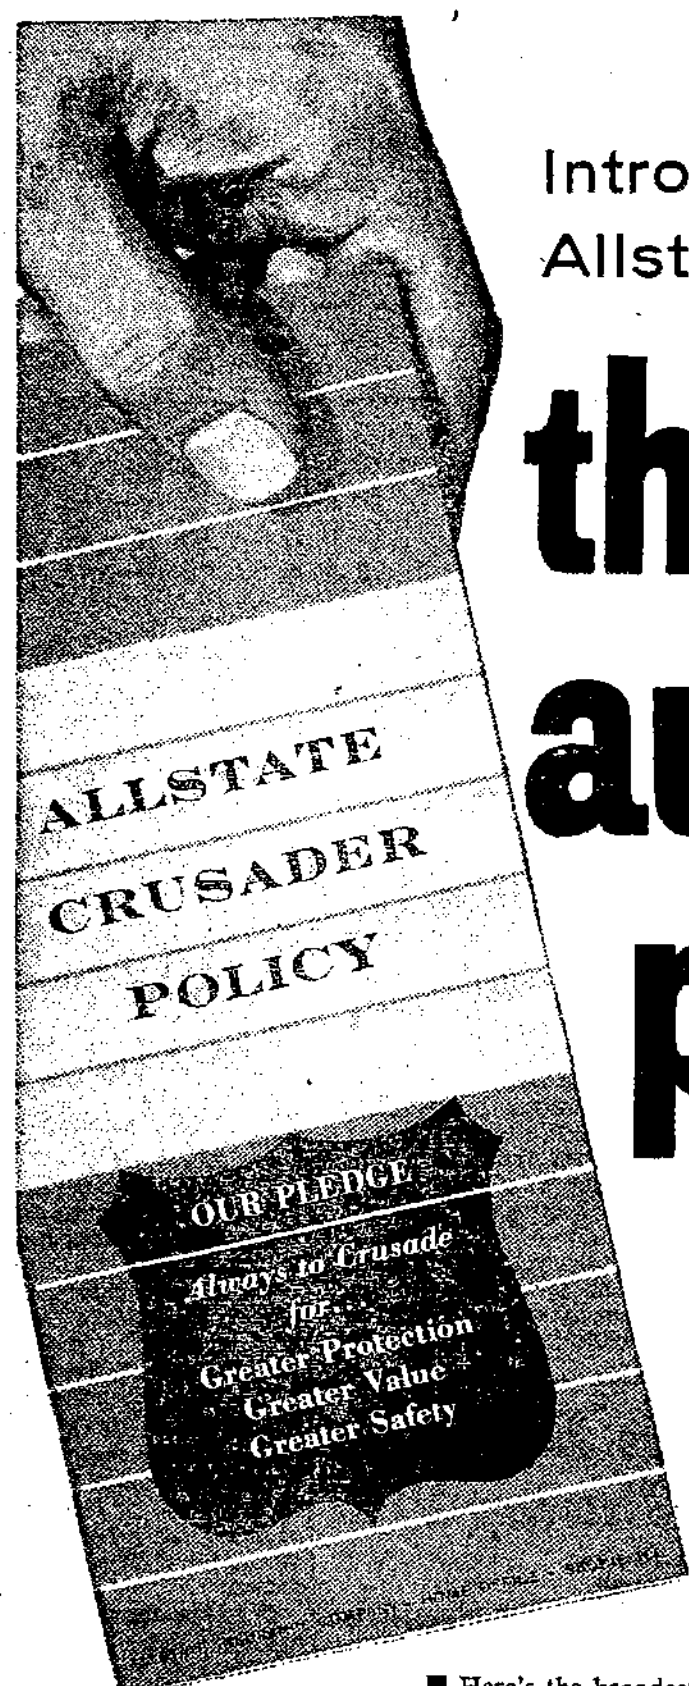

The attorney, David Markowitz held a news conference in New York City yesterday with Mrs. Lamacra and the prisoner's parents and other relatives.

Meanwhile, Peter's mother, Mrs. Betty Weinberger, identified scraps of clothing found with the dead baby's remains.

Mrs. Weinberger was due to appear before a grand jury here today. The jury will be asked to indict Lamacra on kidnapping and first-degree murder charges.

C. of C. Publication Urges Campaign To 'Save Route Six'

Under the heading "Save Route 6," "The Warren Idea," official publication of the Chamber of Commerce, prints this interesting roundup on the campaign to have the highway retained in the Federal Interstate System.

"This is the battle cry you have heard and will continue to hear as Warren joins other communities of northern Pennsylvania in an all-out fight to keep Route 6 as part of the Federal Interstate System. As part of the Interstate System Route 6 would be improved as a limited access road with 90 per cent federal aid. The State Highways Department has arbitrarily decided to remove Route 6 from the System so that a free road can be built from Sharon to Stroudsburg.

"There are many reasons why northern Pennsylvania needs a good highway to compete with other parts of the state which are already adequately served. These arguments are being sent to State and Federal officials, pointing out that Route 6 is midway between the Pennsylvania Turnpike and the New York Thruway and therefore the proper geographical location. An economic survey of the entire area is being prepared and will be used as further argument in our fight to save our only major road.

"You can help the cause by writing your objections to the removal of 6 from the Interstate System to the Honorable Charles D. Curtiss, Commissioner of Public Roads, Department of Commerce, Washington 25, D. C.

"When you write, stress these points:
"1. The loss of a modern, high speed road in northern Pennsylvania would handicap the expansion of present industry and attraction of new industry.
"2. It is not logical to locate a new highway in mountainous Central Pennsylvania which is adjacent to the Pennsylvania Turnpike and would leave northern counties without a good road.

"3. The distance across Pennsylvania east to west on Route 6 is nearly as short as that of any proposed alternate route and will serve an equal number of people.

"4. Point out that the scenic value of Route 6 would be impaired by a limited access highway. The increased traffic on such a road would be a great boost for the tourist business in this area.

"Send your letters also to Hon. Leon H. Gavin, New House Office Bldg., Washington; Senator James Duff and Senator Edward Martin, Washington, D. C.

"Flash—At a meeting in Bradford on August 17, the Chamber accepted a goal of $1,000 from Warren County toward a fund which will be used to carry on our fight to save Route 6. Each county in the northern tier will raise an amount based on its population."

Chautauqua County History Center Has Old Buckeye Reaper

One of the intensely interesting items, from the farmer's viewpoint that is to be seen at the Chautauqua County History Center, Westfield, Miss Marian Baldwin, hostess, is a replica of the Buckeye side delivery reaper, model size. This reaper, 1857, represents the achievement of Lewis Miller, co-founder of Chautauqua with Bishop Vincent. Sales of Buckeye mowers, reapers and other machinery were the basis of the Miller Fortune which was liberally shared with the Chautauqua Institution.

The farmer, mechanic, or the school youth interested in agricultural machinery will be able to study a model reaper of 1855, probably a McCormick. In comparing the two, one will be impressed with the genius of Lewis Miller. The earlier machine dropped the grain directly behind the table, while the Buckeye, raked the grain from the table, giving it a sweep around back of the machine, so that it would not be trampled the next time the farmer cut around the field. The system of rakes revolving quite like the old Dutch windmills, will be recalled by older farmers. The models are built to scale as carefully as a fine watch. The Buckeye farm machines, including mower, side delivery reaper, a wire and later twine binder harvester became absorbed in the great International Harvester Company more than half a century ago. The arrangement of gears and shafting in relation to the cutter, bar is used in all but tractor attached mowers.

A Buckeye mower was manufactured in Westfield, a number of years ago. Mrs. Margaret Miller Newman, 35 Rose Hill Road, Southport, Conn., grand daughter of Lewis Miller, while attending Chautauqua this season, said that she had a model of the mower, and would like a full sized one, if any such is to be found.

Among the many agricultural items are several old time grain cradles, such as our grandfathers and great grandfathers used, regardless of soft muddy ground. The side delivery reaper because of light draft was popular among farmers whose buckwheat harvest often coincided with wet fall weather and soft ground such as today.

School youth are welcomed in groups. The History Center is open from 10 a. m. to noon and 1 p. m. until 4 p. m., each day in the week except Sunday and Monday.

Latest Model Freezers More Practical Than Ever

BY KAY SHERWOOD
NEA Staff Writer

PLANNING to add a home freezer to your kitchen conveniences this fall? If so, you'll find more built-in attractions than ever in new models. Specialized storage compartments—ice cream keepers, juice dispensers, glide-out drawers for odd-sized packages and a "bookshelf" arrangement of shelves that puts packages within easy reach on the door, are a few of the added conveniences.

Some of the arguments in choosing between upright or chest models no longer carry as much weight. One major manufacturer, for example, has brought the production cost of upright 13 and 18 cubic-foot models down to that of chest models of comparable size and quality.

COLOR MATCHED to other appliances in a line, freezers fit into kitchen decor now. Upright models are obviously more saving of floor space than chest models but where the freezer is to be located in a utility room, garage or basement this factor is not so important. I happen to have a chest model in the utility room and the flat countertop work surface is a great convenience quite apart from food storage.

No matter which type best suits your needs, the question of how big a freezer should be comes up at once. Often the difference in cost between one model and the next larger size is not prohibitive. The U. S. Department of Agriculture estimates the life of a freezer at 12 years.

My young, growing family doesn't account for a great deal of frozen food consumption yet but they will in four or five years and this persuaded me to buy a larger (14 cubic foot) model than we really need right now.

In most urban homes, freezer storage supplements fresh and canned food so we don't need to figure as great an allotment of cubic-foot space per person as if the freezer were the principal source of the year's food storage. When you have plugged in the freezer, take a tip from home economists. Don't board the contents, something that novices are apt to do. The real economy of freezer ownership, they say, can be measured in part by the turnover of its contents.

Freezer instruction books tell you how long individual foods can be held without appreciable loss of quality. When the local market has a sale on beef cuts or poultry, I buy several for freezing but I use them up on a regular schedule.

PROBABLY the most important feature of having a freezer at your fingertips is the time it can save, the varied and flavorful meals you can serve and, for me, the chance to preserve foods in the quantity and way we like them.

Explore the many ways your freezer can ease your work. Party cakes or many pies, for example, can be prepared leisurely several days before the big event.

To avoid the morning rush to make up lunch boxes, you can prepare a batch of sandwiches days in advance. Sandwich fillings of meat, poultry and cheese spreads of all kinds, peanut butter and egg yolk mixtures are suggested for freezing by the New York State Experiment Station. Frozen sandwiches will be thawed by noon and the bread will be fresh. I wrap raw vegetables (such as lettuce and tomatoes) which don't freeze well separately and tuck them next to the frozen foods in the lunch box to keep them crisp and cool even in the stuffy schoolroom locker.

Into the freezer goes a gala birthday cake to set the frosting before it's packaged for storage against the day when Junior and his pals will devour it. Upright freezer, color matched to other kitchen appliances, also features shelves on door to permit easy reaching of food packages.

NEED FOR MORE TENNIS COURTS

A year ago when the Jaycees announced they were going to construct tennis courts at the Beaty Playgrounds that could be converted into an ice skating rink in the winter the thought that must have been uppermost in the minds of many citizens was the fact that in the absence of facilities for engaging in the sport there necessarily should be a scarcity of players in the community.

Activities at the courts since they were first placed in use a couple weeks ago have dispelled any thoughts along this line. The wonder is where did all the players come from and how were they indulging in the sport before the municipal courts were made available?

Occasional visits to the courts impresses one with the fact that they are far inadequate. It is not an uncommon thing to find the three courts in use every evening that weather permits, with a half hundred others sitting or standing around with rackets in hand anxiously waiting for an opportunity to participate in the pastime.

Through their ice-rink-tennis court project the Jaycees have demonstrated that they are not only needed but are an asset to the community. The success and popularity of the venture suggests an activity for some other public-spirited group or organization, such as the Senior Chamber of Commerce or the Borough Council.

Before another year rolls around the present tennis facilities should be doubled, if not tripled. The Jaycees should not be asked or expected to have any part in constructing more tennis courts. They have paved the way. An army of tennis players are anxiously waiting to learn how needed courts are to be provided.

MANY USES FOR OIL

What do we, as family consumers, use oil for?

According to The Bradford Era "the answer is obvious—we use it, in one or another of its forms, to drive our cars, heat our homes, and lubricate machinery."

The article reminds that is only the beginning. For the American home is literally stuffed with products derived from oil—and they run an amazingly wide gamut.

For instance, oil plays a major role in house building and maintenance—in roofing, paints, insulation polishes, cleaners, and other materials.

Many furnishings also come from oil. The list includes foam rubber cushions, fabrics and draperies, mattresses and blankets—and even carpeting.

Kitchen and laundry, too, owe much to the oil wells. Washing machines, detergents, dishes, counters and table tops, ice cube trays—these and a thousand and one other things, large and small, are made in whole or part from oil by-products.

Nor is the nursery forgotten. Oil contributes to such items as toys, synthetic rubber sheeting, and plastic bottles.

Out in the garage, of course, oil is really dominant. Gasoline, seat coverings, tires, glass cleaners, asphalt drives, polishes—oil is in them all.

Finally, oil plays a major role in the green-thumb department—the garden. Here the list includes weed killers, plant foods, hoses, and so on.

Add it all up—and it comes out to the fact that oil products and modern living are just about synonymous terms!

Hats off today: To the Zonta Club for sparking an agitation for a municipal swimming pool, to be discussed at a meeting September 12; and Chamber of Commerce officials, on their new publication "The Warren Idea," to be published monthly to keep members better informed on the results of the Board meetings!

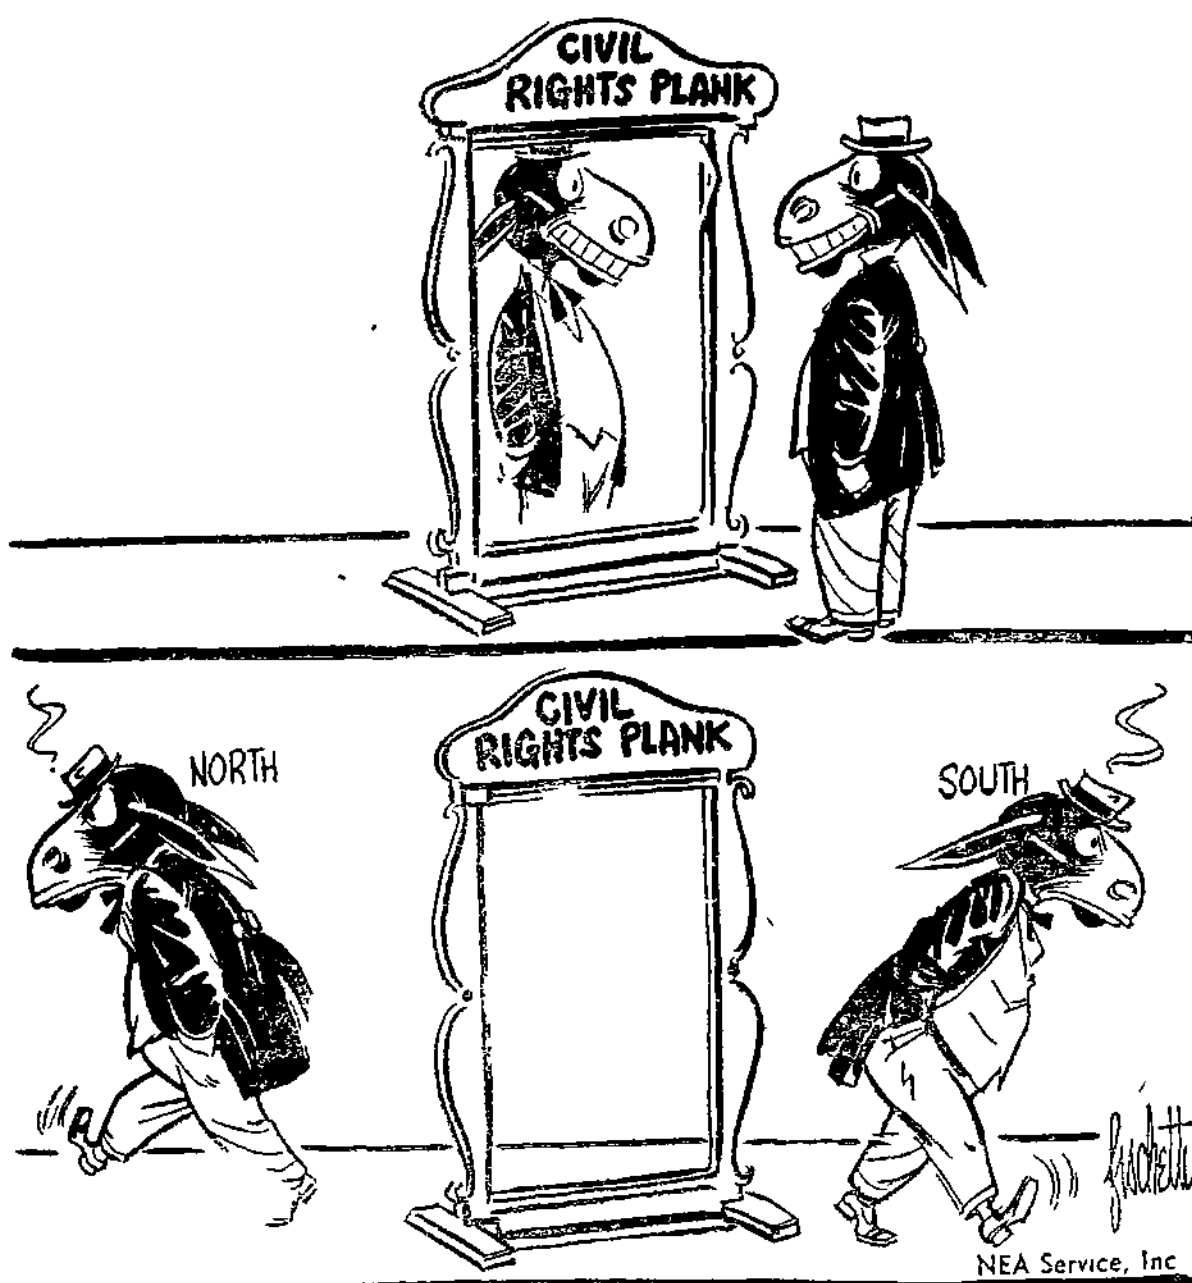

Youngville folks are busy completing plans for the annual Community Fair, four days, starting September 5th! Better plan to be on hand.

THOUGHTS FOR TODAY

Here and There

The mammoth historical pageant "Out of the Forest" opened last night in Tionesta. One of the features of the Tionesta Centennial Celebration, the pageant will be played five nights through Saturday, September first. This history of Tionesta and the Nation is shown on a 200-foot set under brilliant flood and spot lights. All the high points of Tionesta's past is reenacted by 250 performers. Horse drawn vehicles and old autos pass across the giant stage in the various scenes "Out of the Forest" opens with a spectacular prologue honoring Tionesta on her 100th birthday anniversary. The Indians who once roamed the area that is now Forest county are seen. Early pioneers enter with their covered wagons, and later elements of pioneer life chug going. Weddings and schools are shown. The gay festivities that occurred when Tionesta received its charter as a borough are reenacted. The audiences see the Civil War scenes and the arrival of the first train as it actually happened, and later they are treated to a Gay Nineties picnic. Once again spectators are living through the First World War, the Roaring Twenties and the Second World War. The pageant ends with a grand finale in which the whole cast appears on the stage at the same time. All in all, it is proving a great adventure as history is relived for the folks down Forest county way.

A perennial favorite of Chautauqua County Fair crowds will return to Dunkirk, N. Y., for three appearances at the 1956 exposition. Joie Chitwood is bringing his "thrill show" daredevil automobile dives back for performances in afternoon and evening on Labor Day to feature the opening day's program of the 56th annual fair. Chitwood is the acknowledged leader among the numerous hells-driving groups in the country today, as he has been for many years. He has devised a two-hour show that continues to be tops in popularity across the country because he introduces new thrills with every performance. Rocky Finner featured with Chitwood, provides one of the biggest thrills in the 25 high speed events by driving a new stock model automobile a distance of 85 feet through the air to a receiving rampway structure. Shorty Johnson also makes use of the rampway for an 85-foot leap in a stock model auto onto a "junkie" parked cross-ways of the track.

Some interesting comparisons may be had by present day readers by studying predictions that were made in an article in The Evening Times of August 28, 1914 following a meeting of the borough council the previous night when one of the subjects discussed was proposed repaving of Pennsylvania avenue from the tracks to Poplar street. The writer had, thus to say, "The repaving of Pennsylvania avenue west from the Pennsylvania Railroad depot to Poplar street which is to be undertaken soon, presents a difficult problem to the borough authorities. Since the pavement was originally laid nearly 25 years ago the traffic on Pennsylvania avenue has increased to such an extent that it is undoubtedly our most congested street, not only in the portion under discussion but clear through to Glade run. A portion of the traffic will undoubtedly soon be diverted to Fourth avenue on the completion of the paving operation on that street, Pennsylvania avenue, however, must bear the brunt of the heavy traffic and as time goes on this will be greatly increased. The question is, what will be the normal growth of this city in the next twenty-five years?" Those familiar with industrial conditions in Warren say that according to a conservative estimate the population for ten years from now will undoubtedly be no less than 20,000. The present estimate is 14,000, and Warren would only show a normal growth, based on the past few years, to have a population of 20,000 in 1924." (Editor's note: The 1950 U. S. Census listed Warren with having 14,849).

★ EDSON IN SAN FRANCISCO ★

Ike and Adlai See Eye-to-Eye
On Looking Toward Future

BY PETER EDSON
NEA Washington Correspondent

SAN FRANCISCO—(NEA)—Acceptance speeches of Presidential Candidates Dwight D. Eisenhower and Adlai Stevenson ought to be read together. Both speeches "saw good long looks at the future. The country is lucky, as it was in 1952, to have two such candidates of high ideals.

No one can doubt that Stevenson and Eisenhower really want peace, progress and prosperity, when—as a Democratic slogan in 1920, as well as the GOP slogan of 1956.

Stevenson said: "I for one am ready to acknowledge the sincerity of the Republican President's desire for peace and happiness for all."

But on other points Stevenson was as critical of Eisenhower, personally. Declaring that, "I do not propose to make political capital out of the President's illness," Stevenson attacked "the conduct of the President's office and of the administration he heads as very much of an issue" in this campaign. President Eisenhower's speech didn't even mention the existence of his opponent.

EACH CANDIDATE pointed to his party's glorious past. But it is to the future of America that they turn with greatest enthusiasm. The two candidates' pictures of America today differ.

Pointing to the long-range objectives of his administration, as contrasting with short-term measures of expediency, Eisenhower listed these major accomplishments: Help for the farmer through the soil bank plan. Achievement of labor peace without government interference. Reduction of the concentration of economic power in Washington. A new 14-point program to aid small business.

AS STEVENSON sees it everyone in America is not prosperous. The family farmer especially has not had his fair share of national income. Thirty million Americans are today living in families trying to make ends meet on less than $2,000 a year. The small businessman, teacher, white collar worker and retired citizen are in serious trouble. In this government of big men—big financially—no one speaks for the little man.

"The Republican party's record," says Eisenhower, "has brought about more genuine progress toward equal justice and opportunity in the last three years than was achieved in all the previous 20 years put together."

"I will have to confess that the Republican administration has performed a minor miracle," says Stevenson. "After 20 years of incessant damnation of the New Deal, they have not only not repealed it, they have swallowed it."

Appraisals of the international situation by the two candidates also differ.

"OUR COUNTRY HAS never before in peacetime been so well prepared militarily," says Eisenhower. He lists these major requirements for achieving peace: Maintenance of our own national security. Attainment of collective security not in military strength alone but in political and economic help as well. Unceasing effort towards disarmament. Promotion of the administration's Atomic Peace plan. Bridging of the chasm that now separates the free world from the peoples under communism.

"We are losing our military advantage," says Stevenson. "Our prestige has never been lower. We are losing the cold war." He lists these requirements to change course: We must strengthen the political and economic fabric of our alliances. We must protect the new nations in the exercise of their full independence. We must help other peoples out of Communist or colonial servitude along the hard road to freedom.

Corydon's Oldest Citizen Will Be 93 Years Old Sept. 6

Corydon—September 6 marks the 93rd birthday anniversary of William Carnahan, Corydon's oldest resident. Born at Wolf Run, N. Y., a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Delos Carnahan, he spent most of his early life there and at the age of 16, recalls driving a team of oxen, during the height of lumbering activities in that section. Coming to Corydon about 30 years ago, he since has occupied himself with gardening and other lines of work. When asked a reason for his longevity he replied it was moderation in most things and a daily walk. Despite the fact he has been confined to his home the past three weeks with illness, his mind remains keen and he enjoys visiting with friends, who extend best wishes for a happy birthday.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Bennett and son Don, accompanied by Lawrence Manchester, Detroit, motor to Youngsville, where they were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bennett and daughter.

W. P. Browne, plans leaving on the weekend for his home in Visalia, Calif., after an extended visit here and in Niobe.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Niver, Bradford, were callers here of Mrs. L. J. Learn.

James Pascarella, Jr., was a recent Jamestown business visitor.

E. J. Landers has returned from a visit at the J. B. Henderson home in Pittsburgh.

Ruth Millett

LET me tell you today about a group of women who have formed a club that has escaped the faults of most women's clubs.

When they formed their group these women were all fed up with big club meetings, business sessions, money wrangles, busy work, telephone committees, elaborate refreshments and parliamentary procedure.

But they still felt the need of having a group of congenial women who would get together just for the pleasure of being together.

So they formed a small club, asking only those they wanted. They skipped asking anyone because they "should."

They decided to meet every other week in a member's home. To keep the meetings from being a dreaded chore for the hostess they agreed to serve nothing but coffee.

CLUB HAS BEEN HUGE SUCCESS

THEY decided there would be no officers, no dues, no business.

It's just a planned sociable get-together on a certain day.

These women meet at 10:30 a. m., have a couple of hours of good talk over their coffee and any who have the time go on together to have lunch in a restaurant.

The club has been flourishing for several years, with never a moment's unpleasantness, no rivalry of any kind, no arguments, no hurt feelings.

With plain old-fashioned sociability as their only aim, they've formed a group that has as much fun together as a men's poker club.

I'm passing on the formula because so many women write me that they are lonely but they don't like women's clubs.

If you don't like the "typical" woman's club with its over-organization, its lofty aims that are rarely accomplished, its time consuming reports and boring business meetings, why not found a club of your own dedicated without shame to pure enjoyment?

He attended the convention as a state delegate, being president of the Northwestern Convention District.

John Lester Bufford, NEA president and superintendent of schools, Mt. Vernon, Ill., set the theme for the convention in his keynote address, "Proud to Teach." Mirrored in Our Times

A small booklet entitled "Minutes" provides this amusing translation—"Two French tourists, seeing the sights of Washington, D. C., in a taxi, were puzzled by the legend on the Archives building, 'What Is Past Is Prologue', and asked the driver, in uncertain English, if he could tell them what it meant."

'Sure,' said the driver. 'It means you ain't seen nothin' yet.' In many a household, at the present time, the project of going over the children's clothing and making ready for a return to the classroom on September 5 is under way. Dad, too, is glancing through his closet and planning a return to fall and winter.

Men!—if you've been looking around for wardrobe needs for this fall of 1956—"you ain't seen nothin' yet"—until you've stopped at The Style Shop to view the newest and smartest in quality clothes. Style-wise and price-wise—it's The Style Shop.

A man named William A. Arter penned the following, which we reprint in part in view of another long holiday weekend ahead. "So Natural Looking"—The driver had been setting records for years. His city-to-city elapsed time had been getting shorter and shorter as roads were improved and cars were made more powerful. The very day of the accident he told his passenger that he expected to clip five minutes off his best time for the trip. His passenger was an old friend, WAS. Now he is dead. The driver, who was only slightly injured, borrowed a car to attend the funeral. He was relieved to see that the body looked quite natural. It was surprising, since his friend had been thrown from the car and had struck the pavement with his head.

The undertaker took understandable professional pride in the dead man's natural look. Before the funeral, he showed several of his professional brethren what he had been able to do with a very difficult case. "Beautiful restoration," murmured the professional brethren.

"After viewing the remarkably restored body of his friend, the driver left the funeral home. He noted with some satisfaction that it took him only six and one-half minutes to drive, through rather heavy traffic, the four miles to his home."

Of all the phrases uttered to please—the most welcome one and surest to please—is "let's eat out this evening". When a tiresome day drags to its close—and meal-planning monotony grows and grows—it's time "to eat out this evening."

It really doesn't matter which member of the family suggests a change—what does matter is that it become a sort of pleasant celebration. It's essential to choose the right spot—to enjoy food that means a special treat—something out of the ordinary—cuisine that provides a unique taste treat.

This being so—the place to eat—is Pace's Pizzeria on Pennsylvania Ave., W.

How quickly we sense a change of season—suddenly the summer creations look out of place. Gone are the crisp linen Bermuda shorts on the golf course—here are the trimly tailored fall fabrics. Pastels are replaced by glowing tones of autumn—and straw hats are carefully packed away to make room for all felts and velvets. It's a fast-changing world—in fashion—in just about every way. There's the much-touted "new look" around town—store windows and departments feature the current trends.

It's exciting—and fun—a veritable treasure hunt—to plan a complete fresh outlook down to the last perfect accessory touch.

Coro has captured the colors of autumn in fabulous presentation of new jewelry for fall. Yes—for the just right accessory touch—everyone looks to Coro—famous for fine costume jewelry and featured at The Warren Drug Store. Perfectly simple and simply perfect!

Last year in this country 38,300 people were killed in traffic accidents. As always, the greatest cause of these accidents was excessive speed.

Gathered From The Party Line

High Level Bridges Planned To Skirt Reservoir at Kinzua

A four and one-half mile long bridge and roadway, rising to giddy heights as it skirts the edge of the proposed Kinzua Dam and crosses its reservoir is currently under study by Pennsylvania Highway Department as experts ponder route relocations which will have to be made if and when the Allegheny River Reservoir begins to fill with water.

This revelation highlighted August dinner meeting of the McKean County Motor Club directors, with R. W. Mosteller, Clearfield district engineer for the Highway Department. At the same time, Harry W. Garvin, executive vice president of the club, produced a detailed contour map of the reservoir area and an accompanying letter from Col. H. E. Sprague, Pittsburgh District Engineer for the Army Corps of Engineers, which stated that the present Route 59 from Warren to Bradford, via Kinzua, will have to be abandoned about five miles southwest of what is now Kinzua, at a point approximately one-half mile below the dam site.

From that point on the valley floor a bridge and roadway is planned which will curl to the crest of the proposed dam and then wind among hilltops high above the reservoir water level before finally joining the present unimproved Kinzua-Bradford road, via Klondike, Garvin explained to the Times-Mirror on a visit to the office of the Warren County Motor Club.

Route 59, as it stands now, would be diverted at a point about two miles west of Marshburg to hook onto the road to Kinzua via Klondike.

That portion of present Route 59 is listed for official abandonment from the junction of the Klondike Road to the high water mark at a point east of Sugar Run, which would be inundated along with Kinzua and Cornplanter.

Col. H. E. Sprague, Pittsburgh District Engineer for Army Corps of Engineers, has also indicated that portions of Route 346 from Cornplanter to Corydon to a point 13 miles west of Bradford would also be abandoned.

Then passengers wishing to travel to Jamestown from Bradford would turn right on Wolf Run road about 13 miles west of Bradford. From there the new route will cross the state line to Elkton Post Office, the Friends Indian School, Quaker Burdge and Cricks Run, near the south bank of the Allegheny.

At that point, an easterly fork would continue through Shongo and Red House to Salamanca. Turning to the left, a two-mile long high level bridge would take the Jamestown traveler over a leg of the dam structure and the river to Coldspring. This road would connect with Route 17 about one mile east of Steamburg.

The Clearfield engineer pointed out, however, that these plans were not final. He said new routes suggested on the official reservoir map would have to be submitted to the State Department of Highways for approval and appropriations for the work. Mosteller added that the department normally is disposed to go along with the government on such matters.

The Motor Club meeting had expected to have as its main topic of discussion, 80 signatures on petitions demanding that Route 346 be completely improved between Bradford and Corydon.

After the revelation that the Route would be "deadened" three-fourths of a mile east of the Warren County line, the long campaign to have the route improved, ended.

However, the district engineer did agree that at least four miles additional of Route 346 be rebuilt to the west "right away."

Mosteller had with him a Corps of Engineers map showing that a long narrow lake, extending from the dam below Kinzua up the valley almost as far as Red House, would exist most of the year. During extreme flood seasons the water might reach as far as the center of Salamanca. High water level is shown at 1,385 feet above sea level. This indicates that Corydon, Kinzua, Onoville Station, the Cornplanter and Allegheny reservations, plus Pennsylvania Railroad tracks would be under water.

New York (AP)—Odd facts a columnist might never know if he didn't open his mail:

That many highway accidents are probably caused by people who are slowly going blind and don't know it. The National Society for the Prevention of Blindness estimates that fewer than half of the only million Americans suffering from glaucoma, a vision-destroying ailment, realize they have it.

That while most of us spend our lives trying to understand economics, fewer than five per cent of U. S. high school graduates ever took a course in the subject.

That Saturday is a more dangerous day than Sunday for mo-

IT'S THE END—Queenie, a mother cat in Leavenworth, Kans., is checking to see if the "tail assembly" of one of her three new offspring is all in order. She has good reason to check, too, because two of her babies were born without tails. They are quite perfect in every other way.

COLD COMFORT—Linda Kay Lyon, of Salina, Kans., is a tiny little girl, but she feels the heat as much as anyone else. When the temperature goes way up, Linda cools things off by immersing herself in a tub of water that is chilled by ice cubes from a handy pail kept within reach.

Erie County Judges Cut $65,000 From Award of $182,096

Erie—Erie County judges sitting on a bench slashed $65,419.40 from the record-breaking $182,096 damages award made last October in county court to a teen-age Fairview Township boy who was paralyzed by a pistol bullet.

The cut was made in an order handed down by Judges Samuel Tossiter, Elmer Evans and Burton A. Kuhns, son of Mr. and Mrs. Francis Kuhns.

In the award made by the civil court jury in October the parents received $36,764 and their son $145,332. The opinion calls for $30,104.60 for the mother and father and $86,500 for the teenager.

Defendants in the case were the estate of the late George Bach, one-time chairman of the board of the American Sterilizer Co., who was the boy's grandfather, and the teen-age cousin of the gun victim, George Brugger, now living in Maryland.

Attorney John Gent representing the First National Bank, executor of Bach's estate, filed a motion for a new trial. Gent contended the awards were excessive.

The civil court award was made as a result of the accidental gunshot wound suffered in July, 1953, when the Kuhns boy and young Brugger were playing in Bach's Manchester Beach cottage.

The plaintiffs had charged that Bach was negligent in allowing the youth to obtain the pistol and load best time and put 171 miles behind him. Bob's average each day since he left Frisco is 125 miles. He said he averaged 15 miles-an-hour or perhaps 17 to 18 with a "tailwind."

The Brugger boy fired the pistol, the bullet striking his companion in the chest.

The cyclist found a little trouble had developed after his spill on the railroad tracks. The front tire, which is inflated to 80 pounds and should be shellacked to the rim because of its thinness, had slipped a little. Bob took it off and then replaced it after first applying a special tape with gum on both sides to the inside of the rim to hold the tire.

He said his daily routine is pretty much the same. After a breakfast of poached eggs (fried eggs at the start of his trip gave him an upset stomach) he starts pedalling about 5 a. m. after leaving the hotel or motel where he spent the night, always being in bed by 8 p. m.

(Additional trouble in Pennsylvania was caused when changing time belts and daylight savings time threw him off schedule.)

The gruelling pace burns up the food as he rolls along the highways and Bob said he frequently stops as many as ten times a day for fruit, apple pie, cheeseburgers, etc. He said his evening meal was always steak.

Monday night Bob spent in Union City, Pa. but his speedometer which is a small silver box-like counter attached to the axle of the front wheel registered 58 miles. In Pennsylvania he had gotten lost for about the first time.

On the supporting bar in the center of the pike, he had a circular quart canteen in a holder. When he crossed desert sections with no lunch counters to replenish his rapidly-burned energy food, he carried a bag of fruit over his shoulder.

Bob seemed in good spirits in spite of his recent misfortunes. He said he would be home in three days and then go on to New York City a little later to complete the trip. Record bicycle crossing of the United States is 21 days. Bob lost three days due to rain and one when ill.

(To make an official crossing time mark when pedalling from San Francisco to New York it is necessary to stop about every 25 miles and get signatures from citizens in towns passed through.)

How did the man ever become interested in long distance bicycle riding? There are numerous bicycle clubs in New Jersey. Every Sunday when road conditions permit, right through the winter, the group slips on its "long Johns" and starts out.

And, of course, the obvious question? How does that hard leather seat feel after almost 3,000 miles? (The seats on racing bikes are solid leather with no springs to jounce the rider's feet from the pedals.)

Bob smiled and pointed to a piece of red sponge rubber wrapped around the cross bar: "I use that to change positions occasionally," he said. Then added: "I have another piece of that padding in the seat of my pants."

What does he do when not riding? Bob is a press operator in a machine shop. He has three weeks vacation and is taking two more. He and bicycle flew out to Frisco. Bob said people think he's crazy as his grand new Buick sits in the driveway and he takes his bicycle.

And, Mr. Schnekenburger, one more question before you pedal off: "Are you married?"

Said he: "What woman would let her man go for a month?"

Thursday Evening Club Has Meeting And Wiener Roast

Russell—The regular meeting of the Russell Thursday Evening Circle was held in the form of a wiener roast at the home of Mrs. Arnold Jewell, with Mrs. Harley Smith and Mrs. Glen Peterson assisting the hostess. Mrs. Ralph Swanson presided at the business session, and Mrs. Harold Granquist gave devotions. An invitation to hear Sally Weller, Warren county youth ambassador to Holland, at the church September 19, was received from the WSCS. Announcements were made concerning a Dutch Maid lingerie party at the home of Mrs. Ralph Swanson August 30 at eight p. m., and a luncheon open to the public which will be served at the homes of Mrs. Edwin Branstrom and Mrs. Larry Werner on September 13 beginning at noon. The group would like anyone having children's clothing from infant size to age 12, to contact Mrs. Ralph Swanson, who is head of the committee for helping a needy family. Chosen to serve on the nursery committee for next month were Mrs. Harley Smith and Mrs. Willis Phillips. The next meeting will be with Mrs. Floyd Lundquist, and Mrs. Scott Phillips will assist the hostess.

Electrical Storm Kills Cows, Burns Sugar Grove Barn

The severe electrical storms of yesterday brought more than his share of bad luck to Roy Allenson who runs a farm two miles east of Sugar Grove near Five Points on the Lander Road.

Yesterday afternoon two of his cows were killed by lightning. Last night about midnight another bolt cracked into his electrical system, blowing out the fuse box, plunging the house into darkness and presumably touching off a spark which set the barn smoldering.

About 4 a. m. this morning a man on his way home from work in Jamestown saw the barn burning fiercely. He sped into Sugar Grove to turn in the alarm but it was too late to save the structure.

Two fire trucks and 25 men, led by Sugar Grove Fire Chief Scott Stuart, Jr., responded and stood by about three hours to keep the flames from spreading.

The loss is partially covered by insurance. Farm is owned by John Allenson, father of Roy.

LETTERS TO EDITOR

MRS. W. A. WALKER:
I liked the basic principles voiced in your last Thursday's Editorial on our High School situation.

Cordially,
BILL CANNON

Pennsylvania Ave., W.
Editor, Warren Times-Mirror,
Warren.

Dear Sir:
I have four young children and as you can tell I live in the West End of town. Have been thinking about your article about the high school. I don't want my children to walk way up that hill to school. Especially at night when there are things going on. Let's have the school where there are people and street lights and bus lines. Also has the school board thought about skidding up that hill in the winter?

Yours truly,
Parent.

Editor, Warren Times-Mirror,

Dear Sir:
Although my boys and girl ride the school bus, I think that Swick site is ridiculous for the high school. We need a school near the churches, library, and as you say, near the existing facilities. Why don't the PTA and Mother's Clubs make a protest against putting the school on the Swick site?

Let's spend a little more money on textbooks. Last year in Beaty my daughter couldn't even bring one book home to study homework in history.

Sincerely,
Interested Mother.

BIG SNAKE KILL

The biggest rattlesnake kill reported in many seasons was made Wednesday by Forest Ranger R. B. Drake of Renovo and Allen Lumber of Hyner who accounted for 273 of varying sizes in Painter Run one and a half miles from the old Hyner-Coudersport Pike Road. They said the snakes lived in a boulder strewn area about 100 feet square. The warm morning sun after an unseasonably cold night brought droves of snakes out from beneath the rocks. Mr. Drake said most of the snakes were killed with a .22-caliber pistol. They were so thick in some spots that one shot would hit four or five snakes.

He received a doctor of medicine degree from the University of Pennsylvania in 1954.

OPPOSES CURTAILMENT

Titusville Herald: The plan of the Pennsylvania Railroad to take off its Erie-to-New York sleeper on Sept. 8 was strongly opposed by the Titusville Chamber of Commerce yesterday. Early this week it was learned that the railroad intends to run the sleeper into the 30th Street Station in Philadelphia instead of sending it through on a New York train out of Harrisburg. This will take effect on Sept. 8. The following day the sleeper will run to Erie from Philadelphia instead of New York. The new schedule will require passengers to or from New York on Trains 580 and 581 to change trains at Philadelphia. A majority of the passengers using the Pullman from Titusville have New York as their destination. Not only did the chamber ask the railroad to reconsider the curtailment of service, but it requested a modern roomette-bedroom Pullman on the run. "The sleeper to New York has been for about three-quarters of a century our business transportation lifeline," wrote Robert C. Newell, executive secretary of the chamber to J. W. Miller, Jr., passenger traffic manager for the Northern Region with headquarters at Buffalo.

Fort Pitt Tunnel Toll Free Under Leader Order

Harrisburg (AP)—The Fort Pitt Tunnel in Pittsburgh will be a toll free facility under orders of Gov. Leader.

Leader yesterday directed the State Highways Department to construct the tunnel as a freeway. The tunnel, running under Duquesne Heights, would link the new Fort Pitt Bridge with the Saw Mill Run intersection of the Penn-Lincoln Parkway.

17. They are Joseph P. Carlino, 43, who is not related to Charles, and Gondolfo Miranti, 37.

The FBI gave this account of how the gang allegedly mapped out and executed the attack:

Johnny Dio and Tuso met with Miranti at his candy store a few days before the attack. Miranti then got in touch with Bando, who, through Joseph Carlino, procured the services of Telvi.

After the attack, Miranti hurried to a meeting with the two Dios and Tuso. He reported to them that the job had been done.

But he had some bad news. Some of the sulphuric acid aimed at Riesel's eyes had splashed on Telvi's face.

Miranti was therefore ordered to make certain Telvi did not run to a doctor for treatment.

The FBI has said Telvi was later wiped out because his acid-marked face made him a living, tell-tale link to the crime.

would translate into higher income tax collections. But even if the surplus were two or three times greater than the new official guess, there is no assurance that the administration would recommend tax relief, in view of its position that some reduction of the 27 1/2-billion-dollar public debt must come first.

One official said privately the administration may decide to wait until the spring tax collections start coming in and estimates can be made more accurately.

Then, if no general tax reduction seems possible, it may see if some "selective" tax cuts could be given—possibly to small businesses and some groups of individual income taxpayers.

nied the charges but said it had no choice but to recall the two diplomats. Sir Humphrey Trevelyan, British ambassador in Cairo, immediately made a strong protest.

Sharp retaliatory action was expected from Britain. Prime Minister Eden met with Foreign Secretary Selwyn Lloyd. The general expectation was that Britain would kick out two Egyptian diplomats in retaliation.

Menzies' committee was named to present to Nasser the majority proposal of the recent London conference. The Western-sponsored plan, supported by 18 of the 22 nations at the meeting, calls for an international board including Egypt to control and operate the canal. It would be linked with the U. N.

Egypt refused to attend the parity, and Nasser's first reply to Menzies made clear his agreement to hear the five-nation group did not commit Egypt to any of its proposals.

servers reported one inch of rain fell during the early morning deluge starting at about 7:30 and lasting two hours.

After a brief spell of sunshine lasting to mid-afternoon, the siege of rain settled over the area again and another tenth of an inch of precipitation fell during the rest of the day.

Drainage areas up the Allegheny River, already saturated from a continual drizzle Monday, poured rapidly into the current sending the crest from 2.98 feet upward to 5.3 feet.

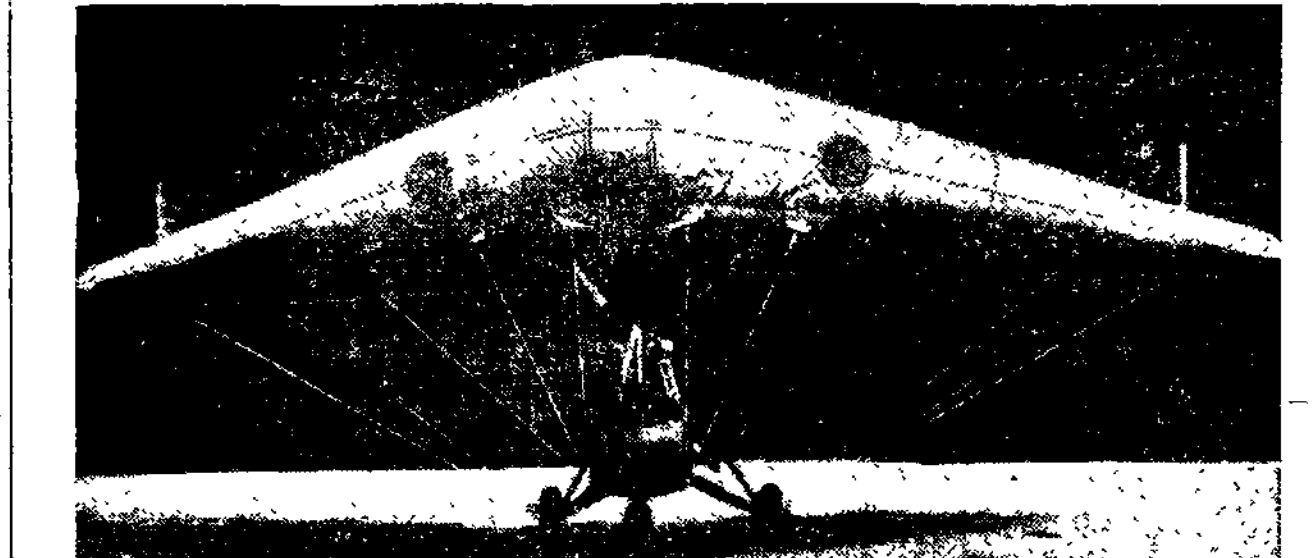

Perhaps one tragic mishap was averted by the heavy rains. Up at the Frits property, 202 Connecticut Avenue, Mrs. Frits was looking out the window during the deluge Tuesday morning when she noticed a gaping hole in the yard. Investigation revealed a yawning pit, about six feet in diameter and 12 feet deep. The Park Department went up to take a look and decided it was an old wooden-sided cistern which had been covered up with planks years ago. About four feet of dirt had been smoothed over the top to form a lawn. The rain seeping into the ground apparently was too much weight for the rotted timbers across the top and then gave way. Many children play in the yard and it is fortunate none of them were running in the rain. It took about six truck loads of dirt to fill in the pit. Borough Manager George Geracimos who investigated the incident, said a similar cistern had fallen in some years ago over on Elm Street.

SHADES OF ORVILLE AND WILBUR—The novel craft, above, is actually a new concept in light aircraft. The English-designed plane, called the M. L. The body is then towed by car and stored in the family garage. The plane can take off within 70 yards, cruises at 58 mph and has a maximum speed of 68 mph.

State Department officials believe that Russia is playing a tricky and dangerous game of Middle Eastern politics by campaigning against international operation of the Suez Canal.

The danger lies in the increased risk of military conflict if the Soviets should prod Egyptian President Nasser into rejecting any satisfactory settlement with the Western Powers.

Secretary of State Dulles told a news conference yesterday that Soviet propaganda to Egypt was denouncing the international operation proposal as "imperialism" and "colonialism."

The "boiling oil" used in movie scenes of medieval conflict is actually dry ice and water.

KILLER TO DIE

Convicted murderer Joseph Reade, Jr., 27, is scheduled to die in the electric chair in Sing Sing Prison at 11 p. m., Thursday unless executive clemency is granted by Governor Harriman. The Jamestown man was scheduled to die this week after the Court of Appeals last month set the execution date. An announcement from Albany stated that it is customary for executions to take place on Thursday of the specified week. Reade was convicted last year by a Chautauque County jury of the murder of his sister-in-law, Mrs. Beverly Reade, 26, and her 19-month-old daughter, Cheryl Lynn. The State Appellate Division and the Court of Appeals have denied a stay. The bodies of the mother and young daughter were discovered by Francis Reade, brother of the convicted man and husband and father of the murdered pair, when he returned home from his night job in a local plant.

Tied for third place with 74s were two Pittsburgh area pros, defending champ Carl Bejan of Churchill Valley and Thomas Blaskovich of Pleasant Valley.

Lew Worsham, of the host club, Art Tucke, of Highland, and Bill Moran, Baldock Hills, shot 75s to tie for fifth place.

LANDMARK RAZED—The "Old Burr House" at Venturietown, a landmark for almost a century, is nothing but a hollow shell of vertical timbers today as workmen complete tearing down the structure. Owned by Fred Greenwald, the property will house a new gas station, leased to Texaco Company and sub-let to Paul Wagner who currently runs the Texaco station across upper Market Street from the new site. Unofficial mayor of Venturietown, "Big Joe" Casamento, calls the construction project the first of many which will eventually make the area "Venture City." Current plans call for the Texaco station to be erected by November 1. Last photograph of the landmark was taken by A. C. Anderson, who is an oldtime resident of Venturietown himself.—Timesphoto.

Last Year's Unbeaten Dragons Rebuilding for a Tough Season

Intrasquad Games Labor Day To Open 1956 Football Season

"This is our year to build" is the statement of Warren High School football coach Fred Bell as he whips the thinned ranks of last year's championship Dragons through preliminary practice sessions.

Public at large will have their first chance to see the new Dragon squads in action on Labor Day Monday for the traditional intrasquad games between varsities and Jayvees. Kickoff time is 1:30 p. m. at Memorial Field.

Sizing up the opposition this year, Coach Bell called the Corry football team, which will oppose Warren in the season's opener September 8, as a "strong, always tough" outfit.

Bell also called Franklin and Oil City eleven "potentially dangerous" and left the Millcreek and Jamestown team records to speak for themselves.

The Dragons open at home a week from this Saturday riding the crest of a 17-game win streak. Last tie contest came in final game of 1954.

The 1955 championship football team from WHS overpowered everything in sight as they took the Section 2, District 10 title with a record of five wins against no losses, and then were acclaimed Northwestern, Pa. champions with a 10-0 string.

Nucleus of the team this year are the two returning regulars, John Fowley at end and Dick Kremer, a tackle. Lost to the Blue and White eleven are the bulk of great players such as All-State Don Mohney, plus Jack Shattuck and Mike Shanshala.

Eight of the nine boys from 1955 squad are now at prep school or college.

Being primed for starting berths as they develop are last year's regular subs, John Berdine, Jim Griffin, Bob Hartnett, Henry Langman and Conrad Hultman. A more perfect picture of how the Dragon roster will size up will be seen on Memorial Field Labor Day.

Schedule for this season is:

No "Take-Charge" Players Show as Amateurs Qualify

By The Associated Press

Results of the sectional qualifying rounds for the National Amateur golf championship again showed that America has no take-charge player like Bob Jones and Lawson Little were in their heyday. But it is good to have a lot of good amateur golfers.

Billy Joe Patton and little Joe Campbell made bids for a place at the top when they set the pace for the 36-hole sectional tests with 137 scores. But they have fallen a bit short in the past and still have to earn the top spot.

The task of reducing the record entry of 1,612 players to a manageable field of 200 for the all-match-play tournament at Lake Forest, Ill., Sept. 10-15 was completed yesterday. Sectional rounds at 27 locations filled 159 places. Earlier 32 others had qualified at three places and nine were exempt from the sectional tests.

When the firing ended, the colorful but often erratic Patton had a 70-67 score and Joe Campbell, the little Indiana towhead who battled to the quarter-finals last year had a 72-65. A stroke behind them came Bill Campbell, the Walker Cup team captain with 71-67-138 and 20-year-old Bob Shave, Jr., of Cleveland, 68-70-138.

The field at Lake Forest also will include all but one of the members of Bill Campbell's 1955 Walker Cup team, last year's amateur runner-up, one semifinalist and three other quarter-finalists. Most of the bright young men who have been creating golf headlines for the past year or so also will be on hand.

Jimmy Jackson was the only Walker Cupper who failed to qualify. Harvie Ward, the defending champion, and Joe Conrad are among the nine exempt players. Patton, Bill Campbell and Don Cherry qualified yesterday and Dale Morey, Bruce Cudd and Dick Yost on Monday.

Tail Bill Hyndman, who took a drubbing from Ward in last year's final, led his field at Philadelphia.

BUCS CUT BRAVES' LEAD TO 1 1/2 GAMES AS LONG HOMERS; DODGERS SPLIT WITH CUBS

By ED WILKS
The Associated Press

Are Dale Long and the rest of Pittsburgh's short-lived heroes to become Milwaukee's pennant-block, just as the Pirates were to Brooklyn in 1954?

Brooklyn had edged to within a half game of first place in '54 and looked good and healthy with 10 games remaining against Pittsburgh in the last month and a half of the season. But the last place Pirates, who had lost 10 of their first 12 games with the Brooks, won five of those last 10, standing the Dodgers on end while the New York Giants copied the flag and the world championship.

The Pirates, who lost 12 of their first 18 games with Milwaukee this season, looked like the spoilers of old last night, coming from behind as Long hit a three-run homer to beat the Braves 5-4 and trim their National League lead to 1½ games over the Dodgers.

And except for the fact Brooklyn was playing a doubleheader in the only major league park without lights, the Dodgers might have been only half a game shy of the Braves today. The Brooks split the twinnish with Chicago's Cubs, winning the opener 6-4 on three ninth-inning runs, but losing the nightcap 4-3 when play was halted after 7½ innings by darkness.

In the American League, Mickey Mantle belted his 45th home run in New York's 4-0 victory over Kansas City in a game held to six innings by rain. The Yankees regained an eight game first place bulge as Cleveland lost at Baltimore 1-0. Chicago's White Sox split a pair with Washington, winning 5-3 after a 6-2 defeat. Detroit defeated Boston 6-3.

Long's poke triggered a four-run seventh that tied the score for the Bucs after Warren Spahn, seeking his 199th major league victory, had retired two men in the frame. Five straight hits set things up for the Pirates against the veteran southpaw. Dick Goat's infield single scored the clincher against Rookie Bob Trowbridge in the eighth.

Elroy Face won it in relief of Dick Hall, who was tagged for Ed Mathews' 31st and 32nd home runs.

Don Newcombe, working in relief for only the second time this season, won his 21st for the Brooks in the opener as Carl Furillo popped a fly that fell for a two-run single and broke a 3-all tie in the ninth. In the nightcap, Gene Baker's 11th home run and a bases-loaded walk by reliever Ed Roebuck broke up a tie game

In the seventh for the Cubs. Duke Snider, sidelined by a knee injury, pinch-hit his 36th home run.

There were 13 home runs in the NL yesterday and Frank Robinson's second of the night was the 1,000th of the season. Long's was 1,001—262 shy of the major league record the NL set last season. The Cincinnati rookie slammed two, his 33rd and 34th, while Ed Bailey added his 23rd to account for seven runs Joe Nuxhall won his 10th.

Mary Blaylock, Solly Hemus and Richie Ashburn got the job done in a two-run sixth. Simmons won his 11th.

Mantle's wind-blown shot came in the third inning with two on against Al Dittmar. It put him five games up on Babe Ruth's record—60 pace in 1927—but the Babe hit his 45th and 46th in the same game. Bob Tukey won his eighth with a two-hitter.

YESTERDAY'S STARS

Pitching — Ray Moore, Orioles, gave up just four singles, struck out seven, walked two and didn't allow a runner past first base in 1-0 victory over Indians.

Hitting — Al Kahne, Tigers, drove in three runs with a triple and homer in three trips for 6-3 victory over Red Sox.

SCALING THE FISH

CUP SPOON DOWN AND FORWARD

IF YOU KEEP BASS, WALLEYES, ETC., ALIVE ON A STRINGER OR BY OTHER MEANS UNTIL READY TO KILL AND CLEAN THEM, YOU MAY FIND IT EASIER TO SCALE FISH BEFORE OPENING THE BODY CAVITY. IF YOU DRESS FISH TO CREAM OR REFRIGERATE AS YOU CATCH THEM, SCALES, IF LEFT ON, BECOME SET AND HARDER TO REMOVE BEFORE COOKING. THEY'RE EASILY REMOVED WITH THESE TIPS:

FILL A DISHWASH WITH WATER TO COVER FISH AND YOUR SCALING ACTIONS TO PREVENT SCALES FLYING ALL OVER. ADD 1 TABLESPOON VINEGAR TO DISSOLVE SLIME AND LOOSEN SCALES.

ANOTHER WAY: POUR HOT WATER (NOT BOILING) ON FISH TO LOOSEN SCALES, THEN SCALE. A SPOON, HELD AS SHOWN, WORKS WELL.

Speaking Of Sports ---

The enthusiasm engendered among local boys and girls by the new Jaycee tennis courts on Beatty Field is the most heartfelt thanks an organization could ever wish for from a grateful group of persons.

From early morning to long after dark, provided the rain stops momentarily, there is seldom a time when all three courts are not the mecca for a grand bunch of youngsters. Only thought is "Where, O America, did they spend their time before the Jaycees got busy?"

And, happily, it is not just the youngsters who turn out. The after-dark, paunchy set (no relation to Gonzales) comes sliding down the bank with racket and a certain inclination to let the impossible shots ride without a college try. That is about the only difference from the explosive energy the younger ones demonstrate.

If the tennis bug keeps biting there is no reason why a few outstanding players should not appear over the next couple years. It was evident this year when 16-year-old Priscilla Ross, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Ross, North Warren, and Mark Peterson, 15-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Milton Peterson, also of North Warren took the finals, that adjacent courts to practice on can do wonders for a shot that consistently sails over the backstop as well as the net. (Courts at the State Hospital were good practicing grounds but are now off-limits.)

Runner-up in the boys' division was also from North Warren. He is Kenneth Thompson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Thompson. Girls' runner-up was Sally Scalise, daughter of tennis addict, Benny Scalise whose good offices provided the experts for the demonstration and tennis clinic at the courts two Sundays ago.

Just for the record, the following are the names of the contestants in the matches last weekend at Beatty Field (first name is winner, second, loser, and set score):

Girls' First Round: Mancuso, Gnagay, 6-0, 6-0; Seceniqua, D'Angelo, 6-4, 6-4; Shaffer, DeLong, 6-0, 6-1; Dobbs, Valone, 6-1, 6-1; Ross, Nichols, 6-0, 6-0; Lanmen, Scalise, Graham advanced with byes.

Girls' Second Round: Lanmen, Mancuso, 6-2, 6-1; Scalise, Seceniqua, 6-0, 6-0; Graham, Shaffer, 2-0, 6-0, 6-3; Ross, Dobbs, 6-0, 6-2.

Semi-finals: Scalise over Lanmen, 6-2, 7-5; Ross over Graham, 6-1, 6-0.

Finals: Ross over Scalise, 6-3, 6-2.

Boys' First Round: Garrett, Honhart, 7-5, 6-0; Bennett, T. Yerg, 6-4, 6-0; Massa, Dobbs, 6-4, 6-3; R. Yerg, Lawton, 6-1, 7-5; Africa, Billett, 6-2, 6-1. Forsgren, Scalise, Kremer, Tourtellott, Thompson, Peterson, Riggs, Brum-

Coast Pitcher Signs Bonus Contract For More Than $50,000

New York (AP)—Mike Francis McCormick, star 18-year-old left-handed pitcher from Bakersfield, Calif., has been signed by the New York Giants to a bonus contract, reputedly for more than $50,000.

McCormick, who stands 6 feet 2 and weighs 185, pitched two no-hitters in winning 12 games and losing none at Makell High School in Arcadia, Calif., this spring. He added three more no-hitters to the list in American Legion junior baseball competition, and then in the Hearst newspapers sandlot tournament struck out all 15 boys who faced him.

Horace Stoneham, president of the Giants, in announcing the signing, said McCormick would report to the team when it returns to the Polo Grounds here on Friday. As a bonus player, McCormick must remain with the Giants for two years before he can be farmed out.

Every major league club was after the young Californian. Walter (Dutch) Reuther handled the signing for the Giants.

Boys' Second Round: Forsgren, Garrett, 6-1, 6-2; Kremer, Scalise, 6-0, 6-2; Bennett, Massa, 3-6, 6-1, 6-1; Thompson, Tourtellott, 6-0, 6-0; Peterson, Riggs, 6-0, 6-0; Brumgim, Mervine, 8-6, 6-2; Africa, B. Yerg, 4-6, 6-3, 11-9.

Third Round: Forsgren, Kremer, 8-6, 6-3; Thompson, Bennett, 6-2, 2-6, 6-3; Peterson, Brumagim, 8-6, 6-1; Africa, Trussler, 10-8, 3-6, 6-4.

Semi-finals: Thompson, Forsgren, 6-1, 6-3; Peterson, Africa, 6-1, 6-0.

Finals: Peterson, Thompson, 6-2, 6-3.

Judges at the tournament were Stanley Korb, Bill Lightner, Carl Thompson. Dick Ross helped set up the individual matches. Coach Fred Bell had playground supervisors, Dickerson, Lord and Germon to help supervise. Mr. and Mrs. Ken Peterson ran the registration at Toy Center.
